

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

If we have few controlling the media, we only get those few sides of the bigger picture. Democracy is diversity and equality. Without equality and diversity, "democracy" is truly hypocrisy and ignorance.
